

Telemarketers are the bane of society. They somehow manage to circumvent regulatory laws, and continue to bother us (albeit occasionally, since NJ's law was enacted). If you weaken NJ's Do Not Call Law, you're performing a great disservice to us working folks who just don't want to be bothered while at the dinner table. Please don't force us to take a step backwards. Please DO NOT side with the telemarketers!